Five Hundred Town Lots!
In the Railroad Addition to the town of Pomeroy.

This will present a Rare Opportunity for Speculation as the prospects for the [illegible] growth of Pomeroy are better than that of any other town in Washington Territory. This Addition being in a valley one third of [illegible] wide, the hills rising on each side to the height of over 500 feet [illegible] is so situated that the city cannot extend in any other direction. The lots comprise with but few exceptions all the available ground for RESIDENCES or BUSINESS PURPOSES and in the future extension of Pomeroy its growth can only be in the direction of the above Railroad Addition, the passenger, freight depots and warehouses being located in the center of these Lots which are inside the city limits. Pomeroy is the county seat of Garfield County and already is a thriving town of over 1000 population with three weekly newspapers, and is the Terminus of the Starbuck & Pomeroy Railroad, a branch line of the O. R. & N., and there is more fertile agricultural land tributary to it than any other town in Oregon or Washington Territory, and there is but little doubt of its doubling its population within the next two years.

FEVER and AGUE
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.
The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

Additional Returns from the Election in Maine.

A TERRIBLE RAILWAY DISASTER

An Excursion Train Collides with a Freight Train and Many People are Killed and Injured

A G A R Appeal

PORTLAND, Sept. 14—Returns from all but three towns in Cumberland county show that the entire republican ticket is elected. Returns so far received show that the senate will be composed of twenty six republicans and five democrats. The last senate was entirely republican. The house of representatives of 151 was composed of [illegible] republicans and [illegible] democrats and [illegible] greenbackers. The republicans have gained [illegible] and lost [illegible] and four are in doubt. If the doubtful ones are democratic the republicans will have gained [illegible] over last year.

In the first district Reed, republican, has a plurality of [illegible] over [illegible], democrat.

FROM LEWISTON.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 14—Returns from over three-fourths of the second congressional district give Dingley [illegible] votes, Careton, democrat, [illegible], Eustis, labor and prohibition, [illegible]. A large number of democrats cut Careton and voted for Eustis. Dingley runs ahead of his ticket. Dingley's plurality will be about 6000 and his majority about 3000.

The Lewiston Journal has tabulated returns from clerks of [illegible] towns. Following is the result: Total vote 10110; Bodwell 4883; Edwards 4441; Clark [illegible]. Bodwell's plurality 403. Bodwell's majority [illegible]. The same towns in the last off year 18[illegible], with which the Journal comparison is made, voted as follows: Total vote 10[illegible]; Robie 4[illegible]; [illegible]; scattering 144. Robie's plurality [illegible]. Robie's majority 47[illegible].

AUGUSTA.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 14—Official returns are being received at the capitol. About 100 towns and cities have responded thus far. Chairman Manley said this afternoon that Bodwell's majority over Edwards reached fully 14,000. The legislature will be nearly as strong republican as two years ago. The republicans got every representative district in [illegible] county, and carry it by [illegible] majority.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

SKOWHEGAN, Sept. 14—Somerset county gives a plurality for Bodwell for governor. The republicans elect seven of the eight representatives and [illegible] of two [illegible]. They also elect the senator and every county officer.

THE [illegible]

FROM THE TRIBUNE.

The Tribune in its Maine election editorial says: The victory indeed is bigger than had even been anticipated. Bodwell, republican candidate for governor, will have a plurality of from [illegible]000 to 14,000. Four republican congressmen have been re-elected; the legislature is largely republican, thus insuring the election of a republican senator; all the counties are republican with two possible exceptions; the prohibition vote will probably not exceed 3500, and while the total republican vote is smaller than in 1884 the party has increased its plurality in many parts of the state. This is the result [illegible] the third party [illegible] and so-styled leaders of the workingmen.

FROM THE TIMES.

The Times says: Blaine is going down hill rapidly. Blaine is doing splendidly in his state. He will read an account of his descent in the returns of the election held in Maine yesterday, and we do not believe he will find much comfort in it. The returns show that thirty two republican legal voters stayed away from the polls in each of the 1[illegible] towns thus far heard from, while the democrats with no organization, no money and no effort suffered a loss of but thirteen votes in each of these towns as compared with the full vote of 1884. This is more than discouraging for Blaine. It is destruction.

TERRIBLE RAILWAY DISASTER.

Many People Killed and Injured by a Collision in New York

BUFFALO, Sept. 14—A dispatch from Silver Creek, New York, says: A Niagara Falls excursion train on the Nickel Plate railroad, under the management of J. W. Butler, excursion agent, collided with a local freight train in a cut on a curve just east of here at 11 o'clock this morning. Both engineers and firemen were saved by jumping. Only those in the smoking car were hurt, it being completely telescoped by the baggage car. Only a partial list of the killed can be given at present. Several were mangled beyond recognition. The killed were W. W. Loomis, Erie; Henry Gedhart and son John F. Gedhart, Pittsburg; Stephen Cameron, mayor of Waterford, Pa.; John Suder, Pittsburg; David Sharp; W. W. Rostatter and Mr [illegible], Erie; William Reynolds, Dunkirk; John Meyers, Erie; Aaron Parkhurst, Marysville.

Two bodies have not been identified. One is thought to be a son of Loomis.

THE INJURED.

The wounded are: Henry H[illegible]ck of [illegible], Pa., both legs crushed very seriously; Samuel Tracy, of Erie, head and shoulder injured seriously; William Zimmerly of Erie, badly hurt; Louis Linse of Erie, badly hurt; Martin Rostaker, of Erie, shoulder and leg injured, not seriously; Archie Campbell of Erie, seriously injured; Edwin W. Marsh, No. 3[illegible] East [illegible] street, Erie, legs broken, seriously; Charles Stettler of Erie, head and shoulders injured seriously; Charles Diber of Erie, leg broken and head cut; J. P. Herrington, of Erie, badly injured; Joseph Tapper of Summit, Pa., badly bruised; Philo Linter, residence unknown, legs crushed; Mr Coburn of Titusville, injured slightly.

THE BLAME.

Various causes are given for the collision. Engineer Wm. Harris of the freight train is blamed. It is said he had orders to meet the excursion train at Irving. He failed to obey instructions and was running at full speed when the crash occurred. Train men will not talk regarding who is to blame. A gentleman who was on the train said that the freight's orders were to go to Silver Creek and the passenger train to Irving, which is this side, and it was these orders that caused the collision.

The excitement among the survivors was intense. The scenes in the smoking car were most harrowing. The first warning that was given was a slight jar caused by heavy pressure of the air brakes. Some of the passengers stirred themselves in their seats, seemingly apprehending danger. Then came a terrific shock, followed by the smashing of windows and the roof of the car, and all was a mass of boards and struggling humanity. Men covered with blood were locked in each other's arms, while underneath them and on all sides lay inanimate forms who were instantly killed, crushed out of all human resemblance.

The wounded crawled out of the debris and were assisted to neighboring houses. People brought bedding etc. on which to lay the dead and dying, and did all they could to relieve the sufferings of the wounded until the arrival of medical aid.

A PASSENGER'S STATEMENT.

Mrs. J. H. Sigel of Erie, Pennsylvania, a passenger, was on her way to Buffalo. She arrived here safely this afternoon. In an interview Mrs. Sigel said: I was in the first coach next to the smoking car. The passenger train was a large one and carried a large number of excursionists as well as regular passengers. The first we knew of the collision was a terrific crash like an explosion. Nobody was hurt except those in the smoking car. The sight was so horrible that I could not look at it. Not a single car was thrown from the track, but the smoker was completely telescoped. It was a mercy that our car was not crushed. It was a narrow escape. A young man in the smoker saved himself by dropping to the floor and escaped with few bruises. I did not learn the cause of the accident, but we were going very slow while the freight was coming at a high rate of speed. We were just one car length off a trestle when the collision occurred. Some of the wounded were taken to different houses and one of the coaches was turned into a hospital. In another coach the dead were placed.

Most of the excursionists remained at Silver Creek intending to return home on the regular train. Passengers for Buffalo and other points came on the afternoon train.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS.

The excursion train to the falls of Niagara started from Ashtabula, Ohio. Eleven passenger cars were heavily loaded. Lewis Brewer was engineer. The scene of accident is a short distance east of [illegible] pushed by a [illegible]. The excursion [illegible] miles an hour when engineer Brewer was terrified by the approaching freight train coming at the rate of thirty miles an hour. The engineer at once reversed his engine, put on the air brakes and jumped for his life, followed by his fireman. Not too soon, for the engines ran together with a deafening crash and in an instant were converted into a mass of scrap iron. The engineer and fireman of the freight train also jumped and escaped.

Next to the baggage was the smoking car, the platform of which was lower than the other and which allowed it to go under. The result was that the baggage car was thrown upwards and backwards fairly and squarely on top of the smoking car, crushing and filling it, except in the space occupied by two or three of the rear seats, the following cars being extensively damaged but the occupants escaping with a shake up.

As the smoker was filled with men the result can better be imagined than described. People in the other cars crowded and jostled together to get [illegible]. The escaping steam mingled with the cries of the wounded and dying made a scene that was at once awful and horrible.

AN ENGINEER DISAPPEARS.

Engineer Brewer of the passenger train went into the [illegible] while Engineer Harris of the freight train at once made claim that he had orders to run to Silver Creek and allow the excursion train to pass while Brewer [illegible]. It is thought fearing arrest he departed [illegible].

Soon after the disaster crowds flocked from Silver Creek, half a mile away, and [illegible]. A wrecking train and medical assistance [illegible] crowds [illegible] began the work of releasing the imprisoned passengers, the dying and the dead. The sides of the smoker were chopped with axes and bars, disclosing [illegible] bodies lying doubled up in every conceivable shape. Workers soon arrived [illegible] Superintendent [illegible] special.

With the aid of jack screws the baggage car was lifted, when the work of removing the bodies was begun. [illegible] of Dunkirk, [illegible] one of the earliest on the train, and [illegible] the bodies of the dead [illegible]. They [illegible] horrible sight, many of them being mangled beyond recognition. Coroner [illegible] Little later empaneled a jury and announced that he would begin to-morrow at Dunkirk to investigate, where the [illegible] of the terrible calamity [illegible] rest.

Strange to say [illegible] of the excursionists came to this city from here [and] went to the falls as if nothing had happened. The others remained in town [illegible] narrow escape.

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED.

[illegible] list of the killed is as follows: [illegible] legs were ground [illegible] and were amputated. He died this evening. Stephen [illegible], a prominent merchant. His remains were found in a terribly mangled condition. H. H. [illegible], Pittsburg, and his son John [illegible] found in each other's arms. [illegible] legs were crushed and mangled. David Sharp, a cripple, and his little son were found crushed together. Wm. W. [illegible] of Erie, Pennsylvania, a well known ship builder, head crushed. He was found dead in his seat. Jacob Rostatter, body crushed almost out of recognition. John [illegible], W. F. Reynolds, Aaron Parkhurst, Adriel [illegible], John Seefirt and John Meyers.

The list of those severely injured is as follows: Samuel Tracy, Wm. Zimmerly, Louis [illegible], Martin Rostaker, Archibald Campbell, Edward W. Marsh, Charles [illegible], Charles [illegible], Joseph Tapper, J. P. Harrington, Philo Linton and A. W. Cahoon.

AN APPEAL TO THE G. A. R.

Commander-in-Chief Fairchild Visits Charleston and Calls for Immediate Action

CHARLESTON, Sept. 14—Ex-Gov. Fairchild of Wisconsin, commander-in-chief of the grand army of the republic, and Col. [illegible] Gray arrived here to-day and spent to-day examining the effects of the earthquake and consulting with the mayor and committee on relief. The object of Gov. Fairchild's visit is to see whether it is necessary to supplement [illegible] the Grand Army for assistance for Charleston. The situation has been fully explained to him. At a meeting of the relief committee to-day it was stated that it would take at least $1,000,000 to put the necessary repairs to houses of persons who are utterly unable to make their houses safe and habitable. Forms of applications for assistance in rebuilding will be issued to-morrow and specifications completed. Likewise, for giving limited pecuniary relief to those in need of them, bedding etc. In consequence of the earthquake, brick layers are now paid $[illegible] a day and laborers $4, which tends to check building operations.

A CALL FOR HELP.

Ex-Governor Lucius Fairchild of Wisconsin, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, requests that the following address be telegraphed the associated press:

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 14, 1886.

Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic: What I have [illegible] profoundly touched by the great calamity at Charleston and vicinity caused by the recent earthquake. I am here as your representative to learn the exact facts and necessities of the people and to take such action as occasion might require. The situation is about as follows: The immediate demand for food is promptly answered by funds already contributed, but there is a class of citizens whose houses are more or less shattered and who have no means whatever with which to repair them. This class and those who being houseless have nevertheless suffered loss of personal property require aid from abroad. It will be to them a continued calamity unless help is rendered. The community here have done and are doing everything in their power. A large sum of money is required to do all that ought to be done. This condition of affairs requires immediate and extraordinary effort. I feel confident that every comrade is anxious to do what he can to bring comfort and happiness to a stricken people. I therefore request department commanders to call upon each post in their department at once to appoint a committee which shall collect such sums as comrades and their fellow-citizens in cities, villages and on farms may desire to contribute. The money should be transmitted to department headquarters, whence it will be sent to W. A. Courtenay, Esq., mayor of Charleston. A committee consisting of seven of the best citizens of Charleston will see to it that the money is properly applied to the relief only of the worthy and necessitous.

LUCIUS FAIRCHILD,
Commander in Chief G. A. R.

THE SCRANTON DISASTER.

Faint Hope for the Poor Fellows Imprisoned in the Marvine Mine

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 14—The situation at the Marvine shaft, where the cave-in occurred, remains practically unchanged. This morning air in the return air course showed gas to within two feet of the floor. Later in the day the gas was four feet from the floor, showing that it was diminishing in volume and that the speed at which the fans had been run was getting the better of the vast amount of gas set free by the fall and which had accumulated during the disarrangement of the air currents. This statement applies simply to the airways and not the slope. No men could possibly live in such an atmosphere, nor does this indicate that gas is being drawn from those portions of the mine where the ventilating current does not blow. In such places gas would simply stand still.

To-day Mr. Abrickol ventured down the slope with a safety lamp. He penetrated to within about thirty five feet of where Shafer's body is supposed to be. Here his progress was stayed by debris. There were crevices in the rock through which the air circulated. There was little gas. Abrickol called aloud here several times, waiting each time for a response, but none came.

The cropping of coal is still in progress, but it is apparently near the end. Splinters of coal is still flying and occasionally the noise of rending rock is heard. Settling will soon cease however, and work will then be commenced in the slope. Miners could not be induced to work until working had ceased.

An effort will be made to-morrow to pierce through the pillar into the chamber by means of drills and thus determine the question of the presence there of gas in the air. The distance through the pillar is not great and the noise of blasting could be easily heard by those imprisoned within, if they were in a condition to hear, and if they would rap on the coal beyond, the miners in return could hear them. After each blast the miners wait with bated breath for some response, but none has thus far come.

A TERRIBLE DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

WESTERN PORT, Md., Sept. 14—About noon to-day while Edward White, a well known citizen, was walking down the street he was shot and instantly killed by David Johnson, a man who has [been] considered a harmless lunatic for some time past. Johnson was at once arrested and locked up. There was no known cause for the act and it created great excitement. This evening at half past [illegible] a party of citizens attacked the building where Johnson was confined. They quietly took him out to a bridge across the Potomac, tied a rope around his neck and made him walk off. His neck was broken by the fall, and after allowing him to hang for a few moments the rope was cut and the body allowed to fall into the river, where the swift current carried it out of sight in a few moments.

A WITNESS KILLED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—F. J. Hill, who came to the city with James T. Holland last year, when the latter shot and killed Tom Davis, a gambler, was held as witness to the shooting. The bondsman refused to give his name to the reporters, but says Hill was dead. He stated that about six weeks ago a gang of cowboys raided the town of Ballinger, Tex., of which Hill was city marshal. While trying to disarm their leader Hill was shot in the foot. Lockjaw resulted and Hill died the next day. The bondsman was told to-day that he could obtain the money to-morrow from the city chamberlain.

Gen. Miles' Trouble with the War Department.

A WOMAN KILLS HER HUSBAND

Arrest of a Female Opium Smuggler—Notes from the National Capital—The Official Axe Soon to Fall with Great Force

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14—Gen. Miles's alleged disobedience of orders in the removal of Geronimo from Arizona is discussed among officers about the city with great interest. Some think he will be able to explain his conduct satisfactorily, while others think he has got himself into a pretty tight place. It is known that as early as August Gen. Miles received a telegram from Washington ordering him to make no conditions whatever with the hostile Apaches for their surrender, and stating that President Cleveland had said they [illegible] deserved to be [illegible]. Miles [illegible] to confine his prisoners in the nearest guardhouse and start with them for Florida. Telegraphic orders from Lieut.-Gen. Sheridan to hold his prisoners in Arizona [illegible] have been received three days before Gen. Miles started East with them.

Several officers said yesterday that as Gen. Miles disobeyed positive orders about the removal of the captives it was reasonable to suppose that there were other conditions made with them regarding the sparing of their lives. Some asserted that unless a general officer could do pretty much as he chose, the president on his return to the capital must order a court martial for Gen. Miles.

CONSUL GREENBAUM OUT OF OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14—Consul Greenbaum is no longer in the service, said the acting chief clerk of the state department this afternoon. Nor has anything been heard from the special agent of the department sent to Greenbaum's post at Apia in the Samoan Islands. It is as yet too early however to hear from him, and the probability is that he has not any more than reached that point. The acting chief further said that Greenbaum had not resigned, but that he had been notified that he would be expected to do so without delay.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14—Consul Greenbaum left for Apia on the last trip of the Mariposa, and as he returned from Washington but three days before the departure of the steamer, it is thought he has gone to Samoa for the purpose of turning over his office to the special agent of the department who is now at that place.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

THE ADVANCE IN COFFEE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—During the past week the coffee market has been greatly excited at times, and dealings reached very large proportions. On some days speculative transactions were over 500,000 bags. The rise is attributed to several causes. Cable advices from Rio and Havre have been of a very strengthening character, besides there is a heavy decrease in receipts, stocks and the visible supply. As compared with this time in July prices show a gain of over two cents per pound, and this time in August of nearly two cents. Recent heavy purchases of spot grades added strength to the situation. Back of all this the crop is short as much as 150,000 bags. Some parties appear to think that the rise has only just begun, while others say the market is pretty well strained. To-day prices are higher by 5@10 points, but the feeling is barely steady.

PORTLAND WEDNESDAY, SEPT 15 1886

MAINE, BLAINE AND PROHIBITION

There has been an election in Maine which has attracted some attention for two reasons. First, Maine is the state of Mr. Blaine, and second, there has been a curiosity to know what would be the result of the special effort made by St John, Neal Dow and other prohibition leaders to weaken and defeat the republican party in that state. But it appears that less interest has been taken within the state than outside of it, since the vote is by no means full. The result is just what happens in any state except in presidential years—the vote is light and the majority of the dominant party is reduced. It is noticeable, however, that the comment of certain Eastern journals on the result lacks candor and fairness. They profess to think that Mr Blaine ought even in "off" years, to keep the republican majority in his state up steadily to the high water mark of an exciting presidential contest, and that if he does not it is a portent of his "destruction."

Two things are equally noticeable. One is the steadfast devotion to Blaine of very large numbers of persons all over the country, the other is the peculiar bitterness of his opponents. To fair and independent minds the conduct of both sorts is altogether ludicrous. Blaine is not a great statesman, he is a politician of multifarious resources, with an inclination to sensational expedients, and his greatest fault is that he acts upon these expedients rather than upon the dictates of solid judgment. He has a facility of expression and power of adapting his expression to time and occasion that are truly remarkable. Even in his best work there is always a touch of demagogy, but it is seldom so pronounced as to be offensive except to persons who are natural critics, while on the other hand it is the secret of much of his remarkable popularity. On the whole, his intellectual make-up renders him attractive to superficial minds rather than to persons of critical judgment, and therefore the very same qualities that give him a multitude of followers also bring against him many vigorous and extremely bitter opponents. And as on the one hand his followers are unreasonable in their ardent devotion, so on the other his adversaries are unreasonable and not seldom unjust in their violent and frantic opposition. As another presidential contest approaches the frenzy of those who opposed Blaine in the last one—the mugwumps—increases. In all the history of our politics there has been nothing like this extreme animosity. It is the protest of the "remnant" against the rule of the "multitude," and should Blaine actually be elected to the presidency there would seem to be nothing left for the mugwumps, as represented by Harper's Weekly, the New York Times and the Evening Post, but self-expatriation and despair of the republic.

As regards Mr Blaine, the election this year in Maine has no special significance. The result is about the same as would naturally have been expected had Mr Blaine not existed. There is [illegible] the republicans on [illegible] great [illegible] excitement and a [illegible] vote. The real significance of the election [illegible] the prohibitionists, who have [illegible] a separate party in Maine, with a view of compassing the defeat of the republican party and then supplanting it, have not been able to effect anything [illegible] though they have had the active support of the national leaders of the prohibition party [illegible] votes in the state [illegible]. The prohibition vote now seems to be [illegible] no great gain, when it is remembered that a state election, rather than a national election, involves a vote on a question that is purely local in its character.

That there should be an effort to form and maintain a separate prohibition party in Maine at this late day is an almost surprising thing. No party in Maine opposes prohibition. All parties acquiesce in [illegible] and yet no party can enforce it, because the people do not want it enforced. For thirty five years prohibition laws have had a place on the statute book of the state, and prohibition is also intrenched in the constitution. But it is an open secret that there are plenty of grogshops in Maine and the prohibitionists themselves admit that the law is not obeyed or enforced. This, in fact, is their excuse for founding a new party. But parties take their character from the materials that compose them, and since it is evident that there are great numbers in Maine who, though they vote openly for prohibition to save their credit, and because they don't want to quarrel with their neighbors, nevertheless will resort to surreptitious methods to get alcoholic liquors, it makes no kind of difference as to enforcement of a liquor law whether the republican, the democratic or the prohibition party is in power. In the treatment of this subject little honesty is shown by any party, and about as little by many who profess to be prohibitionists as by any other sort. Acquiescence and equivocation are found to be easier than open conflict, and consequently there is hypocritical profession of devotion to prohibition by multitudes who break prohibitory laws every day and in fact never will be bound by them.

In Maine the people have been juggling with this question so long that no sincerity is possible. Nearly all regard the effort to secure prohibition through statutory enactments as a farce, and they tolerate it only because they know it does not accomplish the purpose. The simple creed is to give outward reverence to prohibition and then break the law. This course is adopted because it is supposed to give less trouble than any other. Against this there is the protest of the [illegible], but their [illegible] is evidently small. [illegible] however, [illegible] party, and [illegible] considerable [illegible] are [illegible] the [illegible].

[illegible] there has [illegible] Maine [illegible] see [illegible] vote in [illegible] will draw off the prohibitionists from the republican party in Maine is not great enough to affect it very seriously [illegible] the republican [illegible]. We expect to see an increasing [illegible] of prohibitionists from the republican party in states where the ascendency of the party is vital to its national success. The prohibition vote cast in New York cost the republican party the presidency in 1884, and there is every prospect that it will be doubled in that state in 1888. In Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin the third party prohibition vote promises large increase. The signs now point to defeat of the republican party in 1888 from this cause. It is not likely that the prohibition vote of Maine will be considerable enough to give that state to the democracy, but it is almost certain that this will be the result again in New York, and very likely in other states.

It is evident that the prohibitionists believe they can coerce the republican party by repeated defeats. In some of the smaller states they may do so, but in the great states they cannot. For the great states, where the great cities and many large towns are, cannot be carried for prohibition at all by any party which espouses it, and as the democratic party has the Solid South without contest or dispute, and will have it permanently, the prohibitionists have only to enable that party to win in certain Northern states, in order to exclude the republican party from power indefinitely, and to keep in power the party most strongly opposed to any kind of interference with or restriction of the liquor trade. The passion of the prohibition party seems to be a pride of opinion which has been deeply offended by the disingenuous conduct of the republicans in many states, and it goes to the length of a desire to humiliate that party, even at the risk of a probable reign of free rum under democratic rule.

Bragg, of the Wisconsin second district, one of President Cleveland's ardent personal supporters, the man who said at Chicago "We love him for the enemies he has made,"—has been beaten for renomination to congress. The democrats of Bragg's district haven't found a democratic administration as "yieldy" as they expected, and they wreak their revenge on Bragg.

THE STATE FAIR

Large Attendance for the Second Day—Lady Duffy Wins the 1 1/8 Dash and Palatina the Three Year Old Trot

FAIR GROUNDS, 14th of Sept.

Last night and [illegible] the forenoon country people arrived by hundreds in wagons and nearly all the cottages are [illegible] occupied. Trains north and south brought large additions to the attendance, which at mid day numbered about 3500 or double the attendance of the second day of last year. All sorts of people, from gamblers to clergymen, are here, and for each there is some sort of entertainment.

The entries of exhibits closed last night, but all are not yet in place.

The receipts of the fair to-day were $[illegible], a large advance upon second day receipts of former fairs, and indicating to a certainty the financial success of the present season.

THE FAKIRS AGAIN

The [illegible] have made a hard fight but have been beaten [illegible] completely. Another series [illegible] was [illegible] this morning and expelled from the grounds. He thought to create interference by setting up again in the grove between the [illegible] and the main entrance, but as this ground belongs to the association he was again driven out. The managers are determined that there shall be no violation of the rules.

THE KITTY LYNCH PROTEST

There have been two meetings of the directors to-day to consider the resolutions offered by De Lashmutt, owner of Kitty Lynch, resigning membership in the National association. There is great opposition to the resolutions, and it is hoped to bridge over the trouble without coming to extreme action. In conversation to-day Mr T H Tongue declared that to resign from the National association would be a severe blow to honest racing and would be taken as a triumph of loose methods over the best interests of the turf in Oregon. No decision was arrived at to-day, and another meeting will be held to-morrow.

THE DASH

This race was for three year olds, 1 1/8 dash for $300, and the starters were Lady Duffy, Why Not and Tom Daly. Dudly Howard and Argo, who were entered, did not go. The start was good. Duffy and Why Not ran about even to the half mile, when Why Not shot ahead, Tom Daly running three lengths behind. They came round the turn to the home stretch in this order, and it looked as if Why Not had the race. She held the lead to within 100 feet of the wire, when Lady Duffy shot ahead and won the race, Why Not second and Daly last. The race was a very pretty one. The first quarter was made in 26 1/2, the three eighths in [illegible], the half in [illegible], the five eighths in 1 06 1/2, the three quarters in [illegible] and the finish in 2 04 1/2. The judges in this race and for the day were Judge R Stott, H I Rudd and C P Bacon.

THE TROT

This race was for 3 year-olds, three in five, for a purse of $[illegible]. The starters were Nautilla, driven by Lender; Geranium, driven by Connelly; Mattie P, driven by Taylor, and Palatina, driven by Lindsey. Alta A was withdrawn. Prior to the race and after the horses were brought on the track Nautilla was bought by Van De Lashmutt with her engagements for $1350. She is out of Edna J by Kisber, sired by Lockwood, and was bred by I J Jeffrey of Portland.

First heat—Nautilla started a length ahead and maintained the lead till past the half, when she broke and was passed by Geranium. The latter [illegible] ten lengths ahead at the three quarters, and Nautilla cut the distance down to three lengths at the finish. Palatina came in third and Mattie P last. Time [illegible].

Second heat—Nautilla took the lead at the start and held it to the quarters, where she was passed by Geranium, and a little later by Mattie P. Mattie passed Geranium and led to the head of the stretch. From here the race was a hot one, Mattie and Geranium coming in almost nose to nose. The crowd was unable to decide which had won, and the general opinion was that the heat was a dead one. The judges, however, decided that Mattie was a nose ahead and gave her the heat. Nautilla came in far behind, but saved her distance. She showed evident signs of "quitting" and disappointing her backers, greatly having been the favorite in the betting. Time 2 34 1/2.

Third heat. The pools now sold: Geranium $20, Mattie P $[illegible], Palatina $[illegible], Nautilla $3. To a fair start Geranium took the lead and held it to the wire. Mattie broke at the one eighth, and Nautilla and she had no chance for the heat. Palatina trotted the last half very well, but could not reach [illegible]. Nautilla was distanced. Time [illegible].

Fourth heat—Pools: Geranium $10, Palatina $[illegible], Mattie [illegible]. This heat was a great surprise. Mattie broke at the first turn. Geranium was ten lengths [illegible] the one eighth, and Palatina trailed Geranium till the stretch was reached, where she passed her and won by two lengths, amidst tremendous cheering. Time [illegible].

Fifth and sixth heats. The pools now changed in favor of Palatina, and she won these two heats and the race just as she liked. Time, [illegible]. Mattie was distanced in the last heat.

George Rogers of this city will commence next week the publication of a weekly newspaper in this city to be called the Lance, and especially devoted to the interests of the Knights of Labor in this state.

Rev and Mrs D E Gray, formerly of The Dalles, have been engaged by the state board of education as superintendent and matron of the Oregon institute for the blind, which will be re-opened in this city on Monday, October 4, 1886.

The plasterers are putting the finishing touches on the halls and corridors of the capitol building, which will, when completed, add materially to the cheerfulness of these otherwise desolate quarters. The frescoers are at work on the supreme court room.

The Philodosian literary society of the Willamette University has elected the following officers for the [illegible] school year: President, Laura [illegible]; vice-president, [illegible]; [illegible] secretary, [illegible]; treasurer, Mamie Overholt; [illegible], Lavinia Culver; [illegible] Savage.

[illegible] the Willamette University [illegible] officers to serve [illegible] Samuel W Holmes, [illegible] vice-president, Levi [illegible] assistant [illegible] M Anderson [illegible] sergeant at arms, Virgil [illegible].

The governor has recently made the following appointments: William Miller, Canyon [illegible]; Albert Kelly, Kinsley; A Hobbs, [illegible]; [illegible] Mitchell; Geo A May, Milling; Thomas Pearce [illegible]; Marion J Jennings [illegible]; C C Beekman, Jacksonville, and J H Robbins, Pendleton, notaries public for Oregon; Isaac Scott, first lieutenant, and F J Humason, second lieutenant Co B O N G, with headquarters in this city, and L W Allen of Portland as commissioner for Oregon at the London exposition.

Hon Samuel Parker of this county died at his home near Aumsville on Sunday last in the [illegible] year of his age. He was born in Virginia in January [illegible] and immigrated in 1845, where he has resided continuously ever since. He was an active member of the first territorial and also the first state legislature, and bore with him ever through all the walks of life the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. He will be buried to-day at Twin Oak cemetery, near Turner, under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was an honored member.

Certain Portland papers have seen fit to criticise the hospitalities of our city to visiting firemen and their friends during the recent state firemen's tournament held in this city, saying that we gave visitors to understand that accommodations would be furnished free of charge. This assuredly is a mistake, as it would be folly to endeavor to furnish free accommodations to such a crowd. The tournament committee did, however, endeavor to pay the hotel bills of all officers of the association and delegates thereto, as well as those of visiting chiefs and ex chief engineers of outside departments, while very many visiting firemen found pleasant homes during their stay with us among personal friends who did all in their power to make their visit enjoyable. The Salem people as a class are not given to inhospitality and ought not to be held responsible for the actions of hotel and restaurant keepers.

It is hoped the second session will be better attended than the first, and that through it a more thorough organization of the people may be effected for carrying on the great work of attaining continuous navigation of the Columbia river and its chief tributaries.

IGNORAMUS'S QUOTATION

PORTLAND, Sept 14

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

If your correspondent of this morning styling himself "Ignoramus" will read the eighth chapter of Scott's "Heart of Midlothian" he will find the passage he refers to in these words: "Jock, when ye hae naething else to do, ye may be aye sticking in a tree; it will be growing, Jock, when ye're sleeping."

Sir Walter in after years expressed himself as greatly pleased because these words, which he said were actually used by a [illegible] upon his deathbed in addressing a youthful heir, had been the means of causing a Scottish chief to plant trees upon a large tract of his domain, and doubtless many others from that time on have been and will yet be influenced in like manner. Thus we see how small things—even careless words—often produce great results.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A SWINDLER—Mr C. H Wells of East Portland states that one T. C Lincoln, who has represented himself as a well-to-do farmer, of Fargo, Dakota has fled the country having bilked a large number of people. He came here last spring and his coming has cost various business men of East Portland a total of not less than $4000. Mr Wells is one, into whose confidence he succeeded in insinuating himself, finds himself out in cash and paper to be paid at the East Portland bank, about $1100. Lincoln without anything but check as it appears now bought some lots in McMillen's addition and the materials for a house which he contracted with Mr Wells to build. When the house was nearly finished it burned down one night evidently the work of an incendiary. The fire also destroyed two other buildings and a barn belonging to Mr Wells which contained his carpenter tools. Lincoln had had the house insured in two companies. One of these paid him the amount of his policy $450. But the other company declared they believed there was fraud in the matter and refused to pay without further investigation. It is believed their efforts to discover the incendiary caused Lincoln to become alarmed and to get out of this section as quickly as possible. It is thought he may intend to change his name as he left all his private letters and papers behind him. From these it is learned that he is a professional bilk and that Fargo Dakota and Tacoma W T have each been recently the scene of his rascality. It is hoped that the publication of this may prevent his victimizing any more people in this state or Washington territory. This is his description. Stature medium build aged 30 light blue eyes hair short and heavily mixed with gray bad teeth red streaks in his nose moustache and side whiskers by no means good looking. When he left he wore a dark hat and dark clothes. He is not a desirable person and people of the valley towns will do well to look out for him

DR ECCLESTON'S LECTURE—A large and cultured audience gathered at the Tabernacle last evening to hear Dr Eccleston's illustrated lecture on Westminster Abbey. A more enjoyable entertainment has not for a long time been offered to the citizens of Portland. Dr Eccleston who was introduced by Mr C I Fay, chairman of the lecture committee of the Young Men's Christian association, is manifestly an easy and graceful speaker his descriptive powers are almost unequaled. The lecture began with a brief and interesting account of the mythological tradition of the foundation of the abbey. Then followed accompanied by scenic exhibitions of great brilliancy, descriptions reminiscences and narratives connected with the outside and inside of this wonderful structure which has for so long been renowned as one of the wonders of England and of the world, a shrine of homage, a study for days, well worth a trip across the Atlantic to see. The lecture was a model one in introduction in body in peroration in variety of fact and legend, history and poetry in lucidity and directness of expression being neither too long nor too short. In its sixty illustrations, thrown by a powerful light on a screen twenty four feet square it was both amusement and instruction, pleasing alike the child and the adult. The Tabernacle should be crowded to overflowing to-night the last opportunity given to hear the eloquent lecturer. St. Paul's cathedral old and new will be the theme and, if possible, this will be more interesting, than that of last night as it contains more of personal incident and anecdote

SEAL SKINS FROM ALASKA TO ASTORIA—Yesterday's Astorian says: Capt Lutjens arrived in Saturday evening with the Kate and Anna from Alaska, with 412 seal skins the product of ten days sealing in Behring sea. The skins, as soon as stripped from the seals, were salted down and upon arrival here were barreled prior to shipment to Liverpool. They are worth from $5 to $10 apiece. These are said to be the first fur seal skins ever brought from Alaska to the Columbia river. Capt. Lutjens has some other pets aboard among which is a fine sea-otter skin six feet in length worth $100. The vessel lies at Foard & Stokes's wharf and yesterday afternoon the cargo was being transferred to the dock. The Kate and Anna will go down to navigation history as a notable vessel. Her Alaska voyage merits record. She was overdue at Nestucca bay some eighty three days last year and subsequently she was wrecked just outside of Shoalwater bay and thought to be a total loss, but was raised and brought here. And it must be remembered that the first issue of the bogus journal contained a telegram announcing she had made the voyage from Walla Walla to Astoria, a feat unparalleled in the annals of navigation in the Pacific Northwest. Probably the Kate and Anna will next be heard from as searching for the bodies of the 1 1-2 29 people who were drowned when the island of Cuba sank in the ocean last week

THE MEN AND THE BEAR.—The two European noblemen who are making the tour of this country in company with a dancing bear arrived here yesterday. They showed up at the south end during the afternoon and were received by all the youngsters of that section in a body. The bear seemed to be the principal attraction and was quite overpowered with the attentions lavished on it. At a signal from its keeper—a rap on the head with a pole—the tired and disgusted animal would waltz around on its hind legs encouraged by the pole being kept in close proximity to its head and also turn a couple of clumsy somersaults to the great delight of juveniles, while the keeper's assistant called at every doorway in quest of the welcome nickel or more soul satisfying dime. The bear wardens said they came from the south of France department of Toulouse. They must have been noblemen at home as no one except he had been brought up to a life of luxurious ease and dolce far niente could be contented to stroll over the world as companion and agent of a miserable looking bear. The society for the prevention of cruelty to animals should look after the poor bear who is kept muzzled and made to waltz more than is good for its health

OPINIONS OF CATTLE.—An Inland Empire cattle king who not only has countless herds on the range but also owns a fine herd of blooded cattle, was in the city yesterday. He was inquiring where he could buy 25 or 30 graded bulls two or three years old. He did not want more than half or three quarter bloods, and knew just the breed he wanted. His opinions in regard to Devons, Durhams, Holsteins etc, were freely given and were very interesting and being the result of years of experience were valuable. Of course it would not do to print what he said here as it would cause every breeder of the non preferred cattle to start out on the warpath determined to have the scalp of the writer of this paragraph. Speaking of blooded cattle the gentleman said the higher the grade of animal is and the better bred he is the wilder and more untamable he becomes when turned out on a range. The blooded steer has a more haughty spirit and when his mad is up his blood gets hotter and he will fight longer and do more damage than a genuine wild animal. This seems strange, but it is true

BEATEN IN A DIVE KEEPER.—Early yesterday morning a colored man named Luther Davis put in an appearance at the police station bleeding from a wound on one side of his head. Davis said he had been struck in a dive at the northwest corner of Stark and Second streets by a revolver in the hands of Dan Manley the proprietor of the place. Davis's explanation of the cause of the trouble is that some time ago while gambling in Manley's place he borrowed $30 from him. Being informed subsequently that the game in which he played was not just exactly conducted on the square he refused to repay the money he borrowed. Monday night he entered the saloon and commenced to play when Manley entered and [illegible] for the $30. Davis says he gave [illegible] and Manley then struck him with the revolver. At last accounts a complaint had not been entered

COUNCIL COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS.—The committee on commerce yesterday reported on Cerdes's ordinance for keeping a harbor tax and recommended that it do not pass. It probably won't. The committee which had Wm Sweeney's application for the position of overseer of the street cleaning department recommends that for their consideration the matter be indefinitely postponed as the applicant should have been made directly to the committee on streets who are allowed to employ this officer. The street committee recommend the passage of an ordinance authorizing the construction of a sewer in [illegible] street from Harrison street to a point 101 feet north of Lincoln. They also recommend that [illegible] [illegible] of grade in Corbett street and Hooker street be granted

[illegible] W T—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement on the first page of the O[illegible] for the sale of lots in [illegible] W F [illegible] Co have lately completed a branch line to this point but before the railroad was built [illegible] was already a prosperous town of over 1000 and the completion of the Starbuck & Pomeroy branch making it the terminus has given it a great impetus. It is well located in a densely settled country in the very center of the best wheat producing section of Washington territory of which there is over 90 000 acres tributary to it and although this year has been the lightest ever known in that country yet the yield of wheat will be over twenty bushels to the acre. It is ordinarily from thirty to fifty bushels per acre

ANOTHER WIRE TO SEATTLE.—The Western Union intend to stretch another wire between Portland and Seattle to be used exclusively for commercial and press business. Work will commence as soon as the wire is received, probably within a week and it will take about twenty days to string it out. At present there are two wires between here and Seattle one for railroad use and the other for all the other business including press dispatches. Both are kept hot from the opening to the closing hour, and the third wire will relieve the pressure on all except railroad business at the half. Among those likely to be pleased with the additional service are the Seattle Post Intelligencer people who as a rule, will be able to get to press earlier

RUNAWAY.—An expressman named Cornelius residing at 138 Stark street was severely injured yesterday by being thrown from his wagon. He was driving up East Park street when his horse ran away and turning down Morrison upset the wagon throwing Mr Cornelius out and bruising him badly. He was sent home in a hack. The horse attempted to run down Morrison which is being macadamized and is not in a condition for fast traveling. He was stopped by the men at work upon the street in time to prevent him from going into a cistern from which the top had been removed by the lowering of the grade

HOPS BURNED.—On Sunday morning last the hop house of Scott Wallace near Long Station caught fire and burned to the ground with the entire crop raised upon a field of seven acres which will be in the neighborhood of 4000 pounds. This at the present price of hops will represent considerable loss. The fire is supposed to have originated from the furnace, and was first seen breaking out of the roof. The building, furnace and fixtures were insured for $400, but there was no insurance upon the hops.—Albany Herald

KILLED BY A FALL.—George Wise, a well-to-do farmer who has resided a long time about three miles above Milwaukee on the Oregon City road, fell from a pear tree on Saturday last and received injuries from which he died the next day. He fell a considerable distance and mashed his shoulder, broke some of his ribs and received severe internal injuries. He was 60 years of age.

FINE DOG.—Judge Whalley received Monday by express from Peekskill N Y, a lemon and white setter of purest breed. It was a present from his uncle Mr Thomas Jones. It is five months old and has been christened Cid. The stock from which this dog sprang was imported from England in 1853 and he has a long line of noble ancestry. Cid will be sent to college as some good dogs are to be spoiled but will take this week at Mox's bottom his first practical lesson in what his owner hopes will be a useful career

INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation of the East Portland Woodworking and Manufacturing company have been filed in the office of the county clerk. The objects of the corporation are to conduct a planing mill and engage in the manufacture of furniture, sash, doors and blinds. Capital stock $5000 divided into fifty shares of $100 each. The principal place of business of the company is to be located at East Portland. Incorporators J N Zeller, J D Farnsworth and Sam'l E Finger

OPEN TO WEST STAYTON.—Mr C N Scott receiver of the Oregonian Railway Co announces that he is ready to receive freight for West Stayton North Santiam bridge having been rebuilt. This restores the thirteen miles of track between the two forks of the Santiam river which have been practically dead for something like two years. Trains will cross the South Santiam on false work very soon and then the entire east side division will once again be a continuous railroad

KINDERGARTEN ENTERTAINMENT.—The free Kindergarten have accepted the offer made by the talented elocutionist, Mrs Larowe to give an entertainment at the New Market theater for their benefit. It will take place on Friday the 24th inst. Announcement of the programme and of whom tickets can be procured will be made soon. This association has given only one entertainment but that was such a success as to be a noteworthy precedent

THE CHAMBERLIN PRIZES

Shooting for Big Money at Portland Seattle and Walla Walla—The Metropolis Sadly Left.

A shooting tournament for $500 cash prizes took place at City View park yesterday. This tournament was given by the Selby Smelting and Lead company of San Francisco, to call the attention of shooters to the merits of the Standard Chamberlin cartridge of which they are the manufacturers. The only condition required from the shooter was that he should use cartridges made by them. The large scores made in these matches demonstrate the superiority of the ammunition as no such scores have ever been made on the coast with hand made cartridges.

The shooting was in three classes. Messrs Chapman and Johnson judges and A B Riley referee. Each competitor had sometime previously shot at 100 blue rock pigeons artificial those breaking over 80 of them being first class those breaking between 65 and 80 the second class and those breaking from 50 to 65 the third class. There were shoots at Walla Walla and Seattle the results of which were received by telegraph. Each class shot at 100 of the same targets with the following result

That the race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong was proven by the fact that some of the contestants when shooting for class position made a larger score than the winner of the first prize. There was considerable surprise among the boys when the reports began to come in from the "country precincts," and some of them began to look rather glum when it was found that but a small share of the prize money was to remain in Portland

THE COURTS.

The case of Frederick Willer vs The O R & N Co will be called for trial to-day before a jury in state circuit court department No 1. Willer filed papers in an action against the railroad company May 2 last to recover $1400 damages. Plaintiff owns a farm near Table Rock on the Columbia river and sold the railroad company a right of way during the year 1881. He alleges that they agreed to construct and maintain two wagon roads and crossings, but failed to do so thereby cutting him off from communication etc, and damaging him in the above-mentioned sum

The appeal papers in the case of John B David, D P Thompson and Jacob Kamm vs the city of Portland and the water committee of fifteen have been filed in the county clerk's office. An effort will be made to have the supreme court decide the case at an early date. In the meantime the building of the waterworks will probably go ahead as usual

SUIT FOR $2,500.

Leander Holmes yesterday commenced suit in the state circuit court against John W Brazee to recover $2 00. Holmes sets up in the complaint that on the 4th day of June 1881, he transferred block 11 in Vancouver to Brazee for a consideration of $600 to secure a loan of $3[illegible]. Also that an agreement was entered into between them whereby it was agreed that the property was to be sold within a year. Holmes to receive all it should bring over $600 and to reimburse Brazee so as to make the full amount $600 in case it was sold for less. Holmes claims the property on or about November 16 188_, was reasonably worth $2500 that Brazee transferred it to Drusella Burlingame about that time and neglected to account with him. Wherefore he prays judgment

DIVORCES GRANTED

Sophia H Dale has been granted a divorce from Chauncey Dale on the grounds of failure to provide. They were married March 1, 1884. Plaintiff alleges that when she married defendant he pretended to support her in luxury but in fact neglected to support her at all. She was allowed to resume her maiden name Sophia H Webster

Barbara Rinehart was yesterday granted a divorce from Jacob Rinehart by Judge Stearns on the ground of cruel treatment. The couple were married August 1 [illegible] in Canton Ohio and have children

Sidney A [illegible] has been granted a divorce from Sarah J [illegible] on the ground of adultery

The matrimonial bonds existing between Nancy J Campbell and David S Campbell have been dissolved

[illegible]

Robert Taylor and Ben Michat pleaded guilty to trespass in stowing away in a freight car at Front and F streets early yesterday morning. Officer Robinson heard a brakeman order the pair to get out of the car and he took them in charge and ran them in. The men admitted that their intention was to beat their way to Tacoma. Judge Dement imposed the lowest fine $10 each. J MacGregor forfeited bail of $10 rather than stand trial on a charge of using abusive language to Frank Hartman. Willie Dugan, a 10-year old schoolboy was arraigned on a charge of larceny. His parents were present in company with an attorney who asked that the case be set for examination to-day and an order was made accordingly. The complaint against the Dugan boy is made by John F Walsh who resides at Ninth and D streets. He accuses young Dugan of entering a room in the Walsh mansion and taking a lot of tools belonging to a lodger without leave. What possessed the boy to do as he did is a circumstance that he will be called upon to explain to-day during the course of the examination. Report is to the effect that he took them for safe keeping but why is the question to be determined

JUSTICE'S COURT

In Justice Tuttle's court yesterday morning Louis A Hohman pleaded guilty to assault and battery on his wife and was fined $10. On a charge of threatening to kill her he was required to give a bond of $100 to keep the peace. The parties reside in East Portland

Wm Wright a hackman held to answer July 29 by Justice Tuttle for assault with a dangerous weapon on Wm Flynn yesterday pleaded guilty in the same court to assault and battery on D A Baker an expressman. Wright was fined $50 and costs or given the alternative of going to the county jail and serving it out. Wright is on $500 bonds to answer to the charge of assaulting Flynn

Ing Go a Chinaman had an examination in Justice Tuttle's court yesterday afternoon on a charge of the larceny of $500 belonging to Ah Chew. The last named testified that he brought the money here from La Camas where he for a long time chopped wood for a living and deposited with a friend named Ah Chung. Chung gave evidence that Ing Go stole the coin and had other witnesses corroborate this statement. On the other hand Ing Go claims the whole thing is a put up job concocted by Ah Chew and other members of the company to which Chew belongs. Ing Go's version of the affair has already been published and is to the effect that he assisted in prosecuting one of the Chew crowd at Canyon City last July. The man hung himself, and his friends are making an effort to get even with Ing Go for it. At least he says so and Justice Tuttle took the case under advisement

On Friday [illegible] during the burning of the slash [illegible] one mile east of St J [illegible] and Henry Wilson went to watch the county bridge it being in imminent danger from the flying cinders. They continued pouring water here and there where the cinders fell until the fire surrounded them and they were unable to get away. The heat was so intense for a long time that the only way they could breathe was by dipping their handkerchiefs in water and holding them over their faces thereby cooling the air. They were kept there until the brush on all sides had burned when they were able to get away. Both men suffered a great deal by inhaling the hot air. Mr Wilson's case is thought to be a very serious one as he has been completely prostrated ever since

ANOTHER HORNETS NEST

On Monday last Charles Mercer the wood contractor was out in the timber about three miles east of this city superintending four Chinamen cutting a roadway. He had been there but a short time when two of the Mongolians who were sawing a large log struck a hornet's nest which had been built in the hollow when the yellow pests flew out in large numbers lighting on the Chinamen and crawling under their blouses making matters rather warm for the poor heathen and causing them to run in all directions. In the meantime Charley stood a short distance from them shaking his sides with laughter at seeing the poor fellows run but while he was thus enjoying himself the tables were turned and he found himself surrounded by them and in his frantic efforts to beat them off got badly stung on the neck and back when the Chinamen got the laugh on him

An important question has recently arisen with respect to the rights of purchasers and sellers under salmon contracts for future delivery which has not heretofore been raised. The parties mostly interested were Cutting & Co and F E G Steele & Co A B Field and [illegible] Briggs were chosen as arbitrators and [illegible] Sidney M Smith was selected as third person. In February of this year the Washington Packing company through [illegible] W H [illegible] 10 000 cases salmon at $1 [illegible] ship or steamer. The salmon was to be [illegible] 1886 [illegible] delivery of the [illegible] May [illegible] and August [illegible] cannery [illegible] Rogers transferred his [illegible] May 14. At the [illegible] as well as by [illegible] the season there was short [illegible]. After July 31 the Washington Packing company [illegible] about 850 cases [illegible] in respect to the salmon packed in August [illegible] claimed the fish packed in August [illegible] from the spring run and must go toward the short deliveries and that other canners had delivered August fish on similar contracts. Defendants [illegible] the spirit of the contract was that 10 000 cases should be packed between April 1 and July 31, that these dates comprised the open season under the Oregon statute and no contract would be valid which attempted the infringement of law and that it was a matter of natural risk in backing during the [illegible] season which they would not have done for account of plaintiffs. Mr Briggs [illegible] with plaintiffs and held that [illegible] August packed fish. Mr Field held about the same view but thought a strict [illegible] compelled a decision in favor of the defendants and he dissented from the opinion of Mr Briggs. Mr Smith as third person or umpire agreed with Mr Briggs and decided the plaintiffs entitled to the August fish or damages from non-delivery. The effect of this controversy will be to introduce new features into future salmon contracts. If the decision is made the rule hereafter canners who have sold ahead at lower prices than obtainable July 1 would close should they have contracts not filled. On the other hand a decline in values would incite August work and delivery on contract. No doubt this point will be carefully passed upon in writing contracts in the future.

Holding to the view that wheat prices are low and must improve the London correspondent of the Northwestern Miller under date of August [illegible] says: "A week of warm sultry weather has put an effectual stop to the upward movement in prices. Not because it will add a million quarters to the crop in this country but because it will enable a larger portion than was expected to be harvested in good condition and be consequently available for immediate use. It is a fact however that notwithstanding this improvement in the weather prices have lost little if any of the recent advance which is a sign of faith and confidence in the situation I take it. As a matter of fact holders are far from pressing, although buyers are less numerous and sellers for forward delivery are disposed to ask higher prices rather than lower their pretensions. If there has been any improvement in crop prospects in England there has certainly been more in France while from Germany and Hungary the reports are decidedly worse than before and those from Russia do not show any improvement so that the opinion remains general that the wants of the consuming countries this season will severely tax the resources of the exporting countries.

The United Kingdom will require 18 500,000 to 19,000 000 qrs the ensuing season or about 3 000 000 qrs more than last year, the home crop not being expected to materially exceed 7,500,000 qrs. France too will want at east 560 000 qrs, or 8,000 000 more than last year and Germany too will need foreign assistance to the extent of fully 1 000 000 over her last year's wants. In Belgium and Holland likewise the crops especially of rye, are short, and larger imports will be required than in the past season. One of the most important changes in the situation however is the great deception in the yield of the Hungarian wheat crop which is now calculated to be 25 per cent. less than last year. Thus that country is not likely to figure very conspicuously as an exporter of wheat this season. Summing up all the information I have been able to obtain I arrive at the following results regarding the probable requirements and supplies of the various countries during the season of 1886-7:

Importing countries	Bus.
United Kingdom	150 000 000
France	60 000 000
Belgium, Germany and Holland	35 000 000
Spain, Portugal, Italy, Greece, Switzerland and Sweden	36 000 000
Total requirements	281 000 000
Exporting countries	Bus.
United States and Canada	100 000 000
Russia	60 000 000
India	45 000 000
Chile, Australia and Egypt	12,000,000
Hungary	5 000 000
Total	222 000 000

I have left out of this reckoning the requirements of China, the West Indies etc and I calculate that the United States will find it difficult to spare 100 000 000 bus for Europe after supplying the usual wants of China and the West Indies. There is no exaggeration in these figures. Rather are they framed on moderate lines, according to the present outlook."

PRODUCE RECEIPTS.—Past 24 hours 6493 ctls wheat 558 bbls flour 1120 ctls oats 557 ctls barley 102 ctls bran 1840 lbs hides 3900 lbs hops 74 cs eggs 210 bxs fruit 4 cs butter 13 cattle. WHEAT.—Foreign markets slow and weak. Heavy British imports for the past week are noted. San Francisco is lower with a declining tendency, shipper being less crowded. Our market is not changed, holders taking the best of their advantages and demanding full figures which are still paid, although buyers' needs are not so great. Very large lots would do no better than ordinary ones.

OATS.—Quiet although receipts are very full. Prices slow no change.

HOPS.—Slow at [illegible]

An Offensive Breath

is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but it has parted not only friends but lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases, as thousands can testify.

PROVISIONS OF PARNELL'S BILL.

Opening of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph Lines—A General Revolution in Mexico Probable—Notes from London

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—T. P. O'Connor's London special to the Star: Events in the east of Europe are threatening. The situation changes from day to day as new circumstances arise. Yesterday the anti-Turkish party in the ministry and outside appeared to be having things their own way. The cabinet have felt the public pulse and to-night appearances point in the opposite direction. Statements in the lobby at a late hour indicate that Salisbury will make a vigorous attempt to effect a triple alliance between England, Austria and Turkey against Russia, leaving Germany and France to take care of themselves. Unless Russia is deterred by fear of bankruptcy and Austria by the dread of an outbreak of Slavs, war is probable.

THE WORK OF RESTORING ORDER

SOFIA, Sept. 14.—The sobranje has elected Karaveloff president. It has also appointed committees to draft a reply to the address of the government, to devise and submit measures to relieve the state of siege which the country is in, and for settlement of Prince Alexander's property in the country. The state will purchase all this property for $400 000, retaining $200 000 of this sum to liquidate the prince's indebtedness to the national bank. This year's budget calls for $10 000 000.

The porte has informed the Bulgarian government that Turkey accepts Alexander's abdication and promises not to occupy Bulgaria so long as the country is quiet and law and order are preserved therein.

THE THREE EMPERORS AGREE

LONDON, Sept 14.—A dispatch from Vienna to the Times says: There are rumors in diplomatic circles of the Austrian capital that the recent meeting at [illegible] the emperors have resulted favorably [illegible] that there are now good prospects for an agreement shortly between Russia, Germany and Austria [illegible] in Bulgaria. PARNELL'S LAND BILL

LONDON, Sept 14.—Clause one of Parnell's land bill enacts that the land court shall be empowered to make temporary abatement of rents when it shall deem such action just and expedient in cases of holdings governed by the act of 1881, provided that half the rents due or half the arrears shall have been paid and it shall have been proved to the satisfaction of the court that the tenant is unable to pay the balance without losing his holding or depriving himself of means to cultivate or stock his holding. Clause two extends the provision of clause one to holders of unexpired leases and to lease holders whose leases have expired since the act of 1881 and have been renewed on a basis of yearly tenancy under the old conditions of the lease. Clause three empowers the suspension of evictions on the payment of half rent into the court until the case is decided.

OPINION OF THE TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Times, commenting on Parnell's land bill, says: "Parnell's bill has undergone another change. It is a legislative chameleon. Parliament is asked to force a gigantic act of repudiation by the simple process of allowing debtors to retain what they owe their creditors without being liable to legal proceedings. It is a project of legislative spoliation without a modern precedent."

PRINCESS BEATRICE GROWING MELANCHOLY

LONDON, Sept 14.—London Society says: "[illegible] a regrettable fact that can scarcely escape the observation of anybody who comes into frequent contact with court circles, that is Princess Beatrice's ever increasing spiritlessness. It shows itself in her face as well as in her actions. Conjectures as to the reason for it are numerous. If ever the mystery is solved it is to be hoped that it will not be found that her royal highness realizes that she made a mistake in her choice of a husband. But whatever the cause, Princess Beatrice is wonderfully changed and not for the better."

SHAKESPEARE'S TOMB

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Tribune's London special says: The knowledge that the Shakespeare monuments at Stratford-on-Avon are in danger of repairs and improvements will cause a shudder wherever the great poet's name is known. The letters on tablets to the memory of one of Shakespeare's family are to be recut, and a new vestry is to be added to the church. This will make necessary the destruction of an interesting part of the old structure.

THE YACHTING SEASON

LONDON, Sept 14.—The Bat says: Yacht racing for the present season in English waters has concluded. Among her class the Irex is entitled to fly nineteen and the Marjorie eighteen racing flags but the latter has every prospect of adding two more to the number of her successes in the Royal Northern Yacht club closing cruise and the Royal Highland regatta, which latter event will mark the close of the season in Scotland.

IN THE COMMONS

LONDON, Sept 14.—In the house of commons to-night a bill entitled The Submarine Cable Amendment was passed. It ratifies the international convention for protection of submarine cables of the world.

THE DONCASTER MEETING

LONDON, Sept 14.—This was the first day of the Doncaster September meeting. The race for the great Yorkshire handicap was won by Selby, Belinda second, King Monmouth third.

CANADA.

OPENING OF THE CANADIAN PACIFIC TELEGRAPH LINES

NEW YORK, Sept 14.—The Post's Ottawa, Ontario, special says: An event which has been looked forward to with a great deal of interest by Canadians occurred yesterday in the opening of the Canadian Pacific railway telegraph system, with through lines from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The line opens with four through wires from Montreal to Winnipeg, a distance of 1422 miles. Direct connection is also had with Hamilton, Toronto, St Catherine, Buffalo and New York, where connection is made with the Postal telegraph company, which includes the Mackay-Bennett system. From the connection formed with the Postal telegraph company's lines all important points in the United States are reached. The wire used in laying the through line was imported from Germany. In addition to its leased lines, wires are now being laid to connect all small towns and cities in Canada.

MEXICO.

A GENERAL REVOLUTION PROBABLE

ST LOUIS, Sept 14.—A special from Laredo, Texas, to the Globe-Democrat says: Prominent men of Mexican lineage in this city who have reasonable means of knowing claim that concentration of revolutionary forces is now going on throughout the borders and that preparations are actively being made for a demonstration which will shake the Mexican government to its foundation. The 16th of September, next anniversary of Mexican independence, is the day set for a general [illegible] on the part of the revolutionary forces. Circulars and pronunciamentos have been scattered throughout the border states which set forth the demands of the revolutionists. The warcry is "The constitution of [illegible] and down with Diaz."

A PRIEST IN PRISON

GALWAY, Sept 14.—Father Fahy, a Catholic priest, [illegible] was yesterday sentenced to six months imprisonment on a charge of having made a threat against the Offer estate, from which one of the priest's parishioners at Woodford had been evicted, was to-day removed from Woodford to Galway jail. The people are greatly excited over the priest's imprisonment.

MEXICO'S NEW LAW

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—A report has been received at the state department from Consul General Sutton at Matamoras embodying a translation of the new law promulgated on the 7th day of July relating to the rights of foreigners. It provides that any foreigner may be naturalized in Mexico after two years residence upon furnishing proof that he is in full enjoyment of civil rights in his own country, and that he has a business or income sufficient to provide [illegible] ries of life.

Colonists coming into the country [illegible] contracts executed by the government and whose transportation and settling expenses shall be paid by the government shall be considered Mexican citizens, subject to power reserved to the executive of banishing those whose presence may be considered pernicious.

Vacant or public lands, real estate or vessels may be acquired by foreigners without residence in Mexico but they must observe the restrictions imposed upon them by the law in force. Any release of real estate to foreigners for a term of more than ten years shall be considered as a transfer.

The federal law may restrict the civil rights of foreigners to the extent of subjecting them to the same inabilities which the laws of their own country impose upon Mexicans.

Foreigners shall contribute to the public expenses in the manner provided for by law. They shall submit to the decisions and sentences of tribunals without applying to different recourses than those permitted by law to Mexicans. They shall apply to diplomatic intervention only in cases of denial of justice or of voluntary delay in administration of the same, and after having tried in vain all the different means afforded them by the laws of the republic and in the manner determined by international laws.

Compulsory matriculation of foreigners is repealed. This law does not repeal the twenty league frontier limit or the five league maritime limit. Consequently to purchase real estate within twenty leagues of the frontier permission of the president is still necessary, and to purchase land property within five leagues of the coast permits [illegible] must be obtained by special act of congress.

THE FIGHT FOR THE LEAGUE PENNANT

NEW YORK, Sept 14.—The race for the league pennant has narrowed down to two clubs and nothing short of a miracle can give the much coveted trophy to the New York team. The Chicago club won the pennant last year with ease. Veteran critics think that the team will capture the flag with even greater ease this year. The Detroit club however is a wonderful team, and the Wolverines may yet make a bold rally for the lead and capture the prize. The New York club will have to be content with third place and may have to push hard to retain that. The Philadelphia club has played steadily an interesting game throughout the season. Friends of the nine are confident that the Quakers will come in ahead of their New York rivals. The sick players of the same team are now in good trim however and a series of close and exciting games is expected.

THE GALATEA WANTS ANOTHER CHANCE

NEW YORK, Sept 14.—Lieut. Henn like the proverbial Briton, is loth to admit his defeat. The America's cup it is true has been lost in a luckless attempt to sail a cutter in light stoop breezes [illegible] but with a stiff breeze and a choppy sea the gallant lieutenant of the royal navy thinks he can beat the Mayflower yet. "It will not be his fault if another race is not arranged," said he. "I shall not sail for Newport until Tuesday or Wednesday. I shall enter the Galatea for the [illegible] there and after that I want to have another race with the Mayflower. I withdrew my [illegible] challenge since I saw how one was going to [illegible] [illegible] I don't care to try conclusions with General Paine in his Massachusetts bay gale. I have been trying, strange as it may seem, a wholly new race against the Mayflower. The conditions are not yet settled, [illegible] I think they will be given out shortly."

PADDY RYAN IN THE RING

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—A six round glove contest between Paddy Ryan and Frank Glover, champion heavy weight of Illinois, took place at Cheltenham beach to-night. It resulted in a regular slugging match and was stopped by the town of Lake police at the end of the second round. One of the referees decided that Ryan had the best of the fight but the others declared it a draw. The fight took place in the rain on a boat upon which a twenty four foot ring was made. From start to finish the fight was a vicious one on the part of both men, it being necessary for the referees to rush between them with umbrellas and clubs and hold the men apart. The fight was stopped at [illegible] and the drenched and disgusted 1500 spectators made a rush for the train.

NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION

NEW YORK, Sept 14.—The fourteenth annual contest of the National Rifle association of America opened at Creedmoor to-day. There are seventeen matches on the programme. Most of them are continuous lasting a week. The only matches finished to-day was that for the Wimbledon cup presented by the National Rifle association of Great Britain to the National Rifle association of America. The cup was carried off by J. W. Todd, who made 171 points out of a possible 180 at 1000 yards. This makes three consecutives that Todd has won the cup and it is now his property.

SULLIVAN AND HERALD

NEW YORK, Sept 13.—John L. Sullivan says: "I guess you will hear something definite in a day or so, as I think everything has been arranged for a meeting with Herald which is to take place about Friday next at Coney Island. We are to spar in public six rounds with soft gloves for scientific points and according to Marquis of Queensberry rules. The man making the most clean hits is to be the winner and take all the gate receipts."

MORE ENGLISH YACHTS COMING

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The editor of the Commercial Advertiser learns from a private source that though there is not much likelihood of the Irex coming over next year the famous cutter Marjorie will probably visit these waters not so much to race for the America's cup as to see the country. Mr Cotes, her owner, owns a number of yachts, and is said to be every inch a sportsman.

ENTRIES FOR A YACHT RACE.

NEW YORK, Sept 14.—The yacht Puritan was entered to-day for the race for the citizens' cup to be sailed off Newport Saturday. The Galatea and the Mayflower are also entered for the same race.

RAILROAD NOTES

DECISION IN AN IMPORTANT CASE

TOPEKA, Sept 14.—In the United States court the opinion of Judge Brewer was filed this morning in a case of great importance, involving the powers of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway company to extend its line into other states and territories outside of Kansas. Suit was brought by Clarence H Venner, of Boston, to restrain the Atchison company from acquiring the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railway in Texas and from building through Indian territory to connect with that road. Venner, who was a stockholder, claimed it was a violation of the charter of the Atchison company to purchase other roads and that the laws of Kansas did not authorize such purchase. The case was argued in July and on account of its importance was taken under advisement by Judge Brewer.

The judge sustains the power of the Atchison company to acquire the Gulf Colorado & Santa Fe both by virtue of the charter and of subsequent statutes of the state of Kansas. The opinion is very lengthy and is an exhaustive discussion of the powers of railroad corporations and especially of the Atchison. The court decided that this company was incorporated with the distinct purpose of extending its line southwesterly to Santa Fe and southwardly to the Gulf of Mexico and that the acquisition of other lines beyond the limits of the state of Kansas was but carrying out the original plan of its projectors. In addition to this the decision holds that the general laws of Kansas permit railroad companies to extend their lines beyond the borders of the state.

The contract between the Atchison and Gulf companies which was made last winter provided for an exchange of stock of the two companies and Judge Brewer holds this to be a lawful and proper exercise of the power of the companies and that Venner cannot be permitted to buy stock in the Atchison company and then come in and attack its validity or the validity of its contracts.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC'S TRANS-PACIFIC [illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 14.—The statement comes direct from the office of the Peninsular & Oriental line in Yokohama that that company guarantees steamer connection with Victoria based on a minimum of thirteen miles per hour on an ocean route 600 miles less than from San Francisco. The company possesses eighty six vessels of every class and tonnage. The P & O guarantees the trip between Victoria and Yokohama in twelve days, also that effective communication will be made to accommodate trade between Europe, Australia and New Zealand.

Already the U. S. postoffice department has been notified of the early discontinuance of the sending of English mails through San Francisco, thus anticipating the new route which is to be made in from twenty two to twenty five days between London and Liverpool and trans-Pacific ports. It appears then that a shorter distance on the Atlantic, less of rail travel and a material reduction of the Pacific ocean route with the swiftest of the P & O company's steamers are links of the purely and very complete English all round the world line.

Local passenger agents assert that they do not look upon the Canadian Pacific as a rival in any sense, but the agent of that road appears to be more than satisfied with freight and passenger business already secured by his line and looks forward to a speedy augmentation of traffic.

The most efficacious stimulants to excite the appetite are Angostura Bitters, prepared by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article.

A MURDERER CONFESSES.

An Explanation of the Assassination of the Mayor of East St. Louis.

ST LOUIS, Sept. 14.—Arthur Arthbuthust, alias Al Pittman, alias Charles Walker, alias Parsons, recently arrested at Irvington, Tenn, has confessed to the sheriff of that county of having murdered the late Mayor Bowman, of East St. Louis, on the 20th of last November. The sheriff has sent the confession to the East St. Louis authorities.

THE CONFESSION

During the early part of November 188[illegible] I was visiting in East St. Louis and while walking in the outskirts of town about dusk in the evening I was approached by a well dressed man of pleasing manners, who stopped and conversed with me. After awhile he asked me if I wanted to make some money. I told him yes. I was pretty hard up so I was ready to do almost anything. He said there was a man in East St Louis whom he wanted to put out of the way. I told him I was his man and could make arrangements to kidnap his victim. He said he didn't want him kidnapped but [illegible] out of the way and I would murder the man for $3000. If I was going to be hanged at all I wanted to sell myself for a decent amount. I didn't intend to commit murder, however. I meant to kidnap the man and keep him in an asylum. By this means I could extort money from my captive and my principal at the same time.

I made an appointment to meet him again and at this second interview I learned that my employer was a vice president of a railroad company and resided in St Louis. Final arrangements were then made and I then agreed to do the job for $2600. I started immediately for New York and while there made arrangements with Dandy Jim and Striped Charley Blake to assist me. On the [illegible]th of November I went back to East St Louis and there completed the details of my scheme. I bought a bulldog revolver, a [illegible] shooter of [illegible] calibre and two long hunting knives. I didn't intend to want it and refused to murder Bowman but only bought the weapons to defend myself in case he should resist my attempt to kidnap him.

[illegible] evening [illegible] my principal [illegible] while we were taking [illegible] Mr Bowman passed by. The [illegible] the man [illegible] company [illegible] that I would [illegible] way. He gave me his photograph so that I could [illegible]

On the [illegible] night my [illegible] accomplices had [illegible] I [illegible] a hack near Bowman's house in which it was my intention to drive him to an asylum [illegible] I had made arrangements for his confinement. I then concealed myself near a [illegible] of Mr Bowman's house and waited. I soon perceived the gentleman walking [illegible] directly [illegible] and when he came opposite [illegible] in front of him and presented my pistol [illegible] his face and commanded him to halt. He seized my hand and I told him to let go, that I was not going to kill him nor take his money. He dropped my hand and stepped away [illegible] I intended to [illegible] my revolver [illegible] fired. He fell face downward and I then knew that I [illegible] hurt him worse than I intended. [illegible] even then [illegible] that I had killed him. I only intended to disable him [illegible] asylum. I walked [illegible] body and found that he was dead. I then [illegible] escape [illegible] my [illegible] money and went to [illegible] St Louis [illegible] remainder of the month [illegible] first trip to Springfield, Illinois.

The confession then details his travels through the South and his final arrival at Covington, Tenn., and his subsequent arrest. He states that he makes the confession voluntarily, simply because of a guilty conscience. He knows his employer's name, his place of residence and could easily identify him if he should ever see him again. He refuses to declare the vice president's name, but promised to do so when the proper time shall arrive.

Quaker Testimony.

Mrs A. M. Dauphin of [illegible] Ridge Ave. Philadelphia, has done a great deal to make known to ladies there the great value of Mrs Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a cure for their troubles and diseases. She writes as follows: "A young lady of this city while bathing some years ago was thrown violently against the life line and the injuries received resulted in an ovarian tumor which grew and enlarged until death seemed certain. Her physician finally advised her to try Mrs Pinkham's Compound. She did so and in a short time the tumor was dissolved and she is now in perfect health. I also know of many cases where the medicine has been of great value in preventing miscarriage and alleviating the pains and dangers of childbirth. Philadelphia ladies appreciate the worth of this medicine and its great value."

A Constant Study of a Noted Woman's Life.

Mrs Lydia E Pinkham for years made the diseases and weaknesses of her sex a constant study and as a result of it was the famous Vegetable Compound. Her knowledge equalled that of any first class physician and therefore the remedy can be taken with perfect confidence. The subjects of treatment are so delicate that it is hard to be understood without trespassing on the grounds of what may seem improper language, yet it is a well known fact that not one woman in ten is free from pain and troubles therefore there is no good reason why they should not have the means placed before them of saving themselves all, if not the greater part of the periodic and other suffering. The medicine is exclusively for good purposes.
